

LOX-HURST

(LYNX FOREST.)

Is located at Haines Falls, on the Catskills, at the immediate head of the renowned Kaaterskill Clove, and commands the view through the Clove, across the Hudson Valley. For half a century the Kaaterskill Clove and its surroundings have been known and noted as a region of much singular wildness and scenic beauty, and to include the grandest and most charming scenery of the Catskill Mountains. The site of the house was chosen as the best in the region for a summer boarding house. The elevation is 1,936 feet above mean tide at New York, as shown by actual measurement.

The three parks—Sunset Park, Twilight Park and Santa Cruz Falls Park—are one-fourth to one-half mile distant, facing and in view from Lox-hurst.

THE HOUSE

Was designed especially as a superior summer boarding house, to be attractive, convenient, and comfortable. It accommodates from fifty to sixty boarders. The piazzas are very broad and long, and a refreshing breeze sweeps across them. A lawn tennis court is provided with net, and the larger parlor contains a good piano. There are large, open fire-places in parlor and dining-room.

The third floor rooms are fully as desirable as the second, and on account of the more extended view many prefer them. The stairs are as easy of ascent as it is possible to build stairs. The furniture of the bedrooms is of oak, ash, and elm, with woven wire bed-springs.

Hot and cold water baths may be had. No Hebrews accommodated.

THE TERMS: $8.00 to $12.00 per Week.
